

CITY BREAK PULA 2013

Welcome to Pula, the largest town on the Istrian peninsula which offers a diversity of attractions to culture lovers. The rich itinerary of its three thousand years old history, where every step you take through the old town is a landmark, begins and ends near the Roman amphitheatre. A great tourist asset is surely its 190 kilometres of indented coastline, crystal-clear sea and beaches to suit everyone's needs: smooth and even stone surfaces or pebbles for all generations. While strolling through Pula you will come across numerous monuments of Roman architecture: the Triumphal Arch of the Sergii from the 1st century B.C., the Gate of Hercules and Twin Gates, the Temple of Augustus, Arena and Small Roman Theatre in the town centre. A unique experience will be the moments of relaxation on the main town square, which has managed to retain its role as the meeting place since the Augustan Age. Hope that you will spend great time in Pula.
